Intent to Enter Work

- Register online between August 1- 19, 2022, at www.bucksarts.org/enter
- A&C member artists may submit two artworks – one framed and one portfolio piece.
- Online registration requires only the image of the framed piece (image does not need to include the frame, only the artwork). Do NOT submit portfolio image.
- Drop off Wednesday September 7, 3-7 pm at Freeman Hall located at 181 East Court Street, Doylestown.

Opportunity

- Artists are invited to work en plein air on the grounds of Freeman Hall for the run of the show. Indicate your interest on the registration form.

Requirements

- Participating artists are required to register online between August 1- 19, 2022, at www.bucksarts.org/enter
- A&C member artists may submit two artworks – one framed and one portfolio piece.
- There is no entry fee. This is a member-benefit exhibit opportunity.
- A&C member artists may submit 2D works in any medium.
- 3D works also accepted, with some size constraints. Contact info@bucksarts.org for details.
- Registrations will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. Some artists may have pieces displayed on the second floor.
- Size limit for all art should not exceed 16" X 20"; frames may make dimensions larger (i.e., a 16" x 20" painting in a 24" x 30" frame is acceptable)
- Artists' name, phone number, email address, website (if available), title, medium, and price must be on the back of all pieces.
- All hanging works must be wired for hanging or will be declined upon delivery; NO sawtooth hangers.
- Artists are invited to bring promotional literature (postcards, business cards, etc.) for the A&C to make available to visitors to the exhibit. We will also feature this literature in our booth at the Doylestown Arts Festival.
- Participating artists may agree to commit to some gallery sitting during the run of the show; we will be in touch.
- Regional artists who are not currently A&C members are encouraged to join now and take advantage of this exhibition opportunity. Learn more at bucksarts.org.

Standard label for artwork & portfolio requirement

- Framed artwork will be labeled by A&C (Artists' Name, Contact Information, Title, Medium, and Price) in the Freeman Hall galleries.
- Portfolio piece (not to exceed 24" on the longest side) needs to be labeled by the artist. Label with name, title, medium, price and affix to the upper right FRONT corner of the piece for easy viewing. The piece should be completely wrapped (all sides) in clear acetate or in a sealed acetate sleeve/envelope. Please include your artist contact information (ie: business card or written on a small card) INSIDE the acetate.

Sales

- Artists will receive 80% of the proceeds from the sale of any artwork. The remaining 20% will support the Arts & Cultural Council of Bucks County.
- Buyers will purchase work directly through the A&C. Artists will be informed of all sales and will be reimbursed at the end of the show.

Liability

- I understand that the A&C exhibition space at Freeman Hall will be used by artist tenants and Salem Church for occasional events during the exhibition.
- The work I am submitting for A&C FALL SALON MEMBERS SHOW at FREEMAN HALL is the possession and responsibility of the artist. While the Arts & Cultural Council of Bucks County and Freeman Hall at Salem will do their best to protect the work of art, they are not liable for any damages and/or theft that may come to the work while on display. I also understand that I/the artist am/is may be responsible for picking up work at the close of the exhibition on October 3. The Arts & Cultural Council of Bucks County and Freeman Hall at Salem will be unable to store work after that date.
- Any works submitted to the A&C FALL SALON MEMBERS SHOW at FREEMAN HALL may be photographed, and photographs may be used by the Arts & Cultural Council of Bucks County and Freeman Hall at Salem for video, website, internet, publicity, films, social media, and Arts & Cultural Council of Bucks County and Freeman Hall at Salem publications. I understand that the artist's name may be used in conjunction with the images. I also understand that the Arts & Cultural Council of Bucks County and Freeman Hall at Salem will not share these images with any other institution or organization for their use without prior permission.
